

Name: _____

The Arab Spring: Country Presentations

Instructions: With your group members, create a 2-3 minute presentation about the protests, violence, and/or political change that has occurred in your assigned country in 2011. Use sources assigned by your teacher and the questions below to help you prepare.

Assigned country: _____

1. History of the protests
 - a. When did protests begin?
 - b. What were/are people protesting?
 - c. How did the government respond?
 - d. What has been the result?
2. Today
 - a. What is happening in your country now?
 - b. Who is in charge of the government?
 - c. Will there be elections? If so, when?
 - d. What key challenges does the country face today?
3. The international community
 - a. Have international organizations (for example, the Arab League, the UN, or NATO) or other countries been involved in events in your country? If so, how?
 - b. What has been the position of the United States on the events in your country?
4. How would you characterize what has happened in your country? Would you call it a revolution?

Name: _____

The Arab Spring: Looking at the Region

Instructions: Use this chart to take notes while the other groups present information about their assigned countries.

Country	History of the protest	What's happening now?
Tunisia
Egypt
Libya
Syria
Yemen		