A Letter to the President

Instructions: Draft a letter to President Biden that summarizes your impressions of his State of the Union Address. Did you agree or disagree with his main points? Explain why. You might also choose to address an issue that he did not mention in his speech or include a personal story that relates to a policy issue. What do you hope the president will accomplish in the coming year? Include any questions you might have for President Biden about local, national, or international concerns. Consider including information about yourself that you would like to share (for example, your hometown, your school's name, etc.)

See below for a suggestion of what your letter might look like. You can draft your letter below before you write a final copy on a separate piece of paper.

To: Mr. President Joseph R. Biden
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20500

From: (Your address)

Dear Mr. President,

I watched your State of the Union Address and I thought...

Sincerely,

(Your name)
(Your school)
